- review from time to time the WSB’s administrative handling and reviewing of incoming complaints, based on the WOSM Complaints Policy
- receive and review such complaints that
  - fulfil the below criteria:
- adhering to the basic principles outlined in the WOSM Complaints Policy
- considered as not being vexatious, and
- pertain to a potential breach of the WOSM Code of Conduct

○ and are received as follows:
  - through the WSB; or
  - raised directly by the WSC or the Chairpersons of other Standing Committees; or
  - addressed directly to the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee (EC) (without intervention of the WSB) if the complaint pertains directly to members of the World or Regional Scout Committees (including ex-officio members that are not WSB staff). WSB staff is not included here, as they are subject to the WSB’s internal Code of Conduct.

- review the complaint as appropriate using reasonable resources, in accordance with the Complaints Policy. In case the EC deems that there might be a requirement to refer the case to appropriate legal authorities, it will immediately consult on the case with the legal counsel of the WSB for appropriate action.

Practicalities: The following practicalities will apply to the work of the Ethics Committee:

- the Ethics Committee shall report directly to the WSC
- a Conflict of Interest Policy, in line with the WSC Conflict of Interest Policy, will be adopted by the Ethics Committee. The Conflict of Interest Policy will include a specific provision stating that, if a complaint pertains directly to a member of the Ethics Committee, the member will be provisionally suspended from the Committee for the duration of the investigation. The Conflict of Interest Policy will also include a specific provision stating that if a complaint pertains to individuals from an Ethics Committee member’s NSO, such member should not be involved in the investigation of the respective complaint

- the WSB staff in charge of legal affairs and any other staff designated by the Secretary General will coordinate staff support to the Ethics Committee
- an agenda and accompanying papers will be circulated to members seven days in advance of a meeting taking place
- the minutes and actions of a meeting will be circulated to members within seven days after a meeting takes place
- in the event of the establishment, by the WSC, of special task forces or other bodies with subjects which have, in whole or in part, an ethical impact, the Ethics Committee will be expected to work in close cooperation with such task forces or bodies
- further rules governing the functioning of the Ethics Committee shall be decided by the Ethics Committee itself, shall be reflected in an updated version of this document and advised to the WSC Chairperson
- these terms of reference, and any amendments thereto, shall be approved by the WSC.
